I RESIGN

OCTOBER 9, 1939.

To the Young Communist League and the Communist Party:

Three years ago, like many other young Americans, I entered your Party, and movement, believing that your aims were for the bettering of America, both economically and socially, and that you were the true defenders of democracy.

After three years work in your movement, I have come to the conclusion that joining your Party was the greatest mistake of my life. You have proven to me by your teachings and actions that your aims are not for the bettering of America, but are for furthering your own selfish ambitions and those of your fatherland in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Had your aims been true and for the best interest of our Nation, you would not have had to call upon your father and high priest, Joseph Stalin, for every move you make but would have found your leadership here in the United States of America.

Many of your members have come from foreign shores to our land to escape oppression and like termites do not become members of our household but gnaw at the pillars of our democracy with hopes that it will crumble and you might profit by its fall.

You shout to high heaven your praise for the bill of rights and all it stands for, yet in your own party, you pry into every member's private life, and see to it with all your power that he cannot live a life of his own.

Yes, your speakers rave for hours about the mad dogs of fascism and how your fatherland the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and its leader, Joseph Stalin, is the greatest bulwark against fascism and the defender of democracy, and while these words are yet wet upon your lips the great Red Army of the fatherland and your beloved peace leader, Joseph Stalin, join hands in accord with Adolph Hitler, one of the biggest Fascist leaders, and one of the greatest enemies of democracy in our times, and together they destroy Poland, and bring little Latvia, Estonia, and Lithuania to their knees. Yes, all this your fatherland does in the name of peace and democracy. But do you who have the protection of a democracy tell your fatherland, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, that you do not approve of the action taken by the Red Army in its conquest of Poland? No! And by these and many other actions you prove that you and your organization are no more than puppets dancing on the strings pulled by Joseph Stalin and the Comintern.

Because of your un-American ways and your lie of your so-called defense of democracy, I hereby submit my resignation from the Young Communist League and the Communist Party, to take effect immediately. I shall take my stand with those who are fighting for real Americanism and democracy. I know that this is a long and bitter fight and I am enlisted for the duration of the war.

Yours truly,

KENNETH GOFF.

INTRODUCTION

Oh what joy swells in our hearts when driving along a road, which seems to have no end, and all at once there looms before us a signboard advertising a business establishment in our home town. Soon we see a sign, which tells us the home town is only a few miles down the road.

So like this, for 1900 years mankind has been going along life's historic road, looking for signs, which would tell us that we were reaching the end of the road, and that the soon coming of our Lord and Savior was at hand.

How wonderful, that He has given us a road map in the Holy Bible, which lists the signs we should look forward to, in pointing the way to His coming. Year after year we pass by these signs but now they seem to appear closer and closer, each one cutting the distance so greatly that the very end seems just around the next curve.

It is one of these signs which should appear in the end-time that I wish to point out to you; that you be not deceived, but awake to the reality of the coming of your Lord.

The Apostle Paul tells us in II Thessalonians 2: "Let no man deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God."

Most Bible students agree that the one spoken of by Paul is the anti-Christ, who is Satan's Masterpiece, and shall be pawned off on the world before the Second Coming of Christ. He shall appear on the world-stage as the very incarnation of Sin and Satan—the embodiment and expression of all evil. The appearance of the anti-Christ will be Satan's attempt to give mankind a counterfeit Christ to worship. The Devil knows that Christ's coming is near at hand, and shall do everything in his power to quickly win the nations to his cause. The conditions in the world today should be proof to anyone that he is fast at work. In the past few years many countries have had a taste of rationing. Already conferences have been held to study the possibility of setting up a universal rationing plan under one head, and you can be assured that this plan will be put into full effect with the arrival of the anti-Christ.

Apostle John on the Isle of Patmos foresaw the day when man could neither buy nor sell save he had the mark of the Beast on his forehead. For today it seems apparent that this condition is a foreshadow of things to come.

Plans are under way for the establishment of a New World Order, under which there is promised Peace, Prosperity, and Freedom for all. To hear some of its proponents, one would think surely this is the day when the Lamb and the Lion should lie down together, and that man was producing the millennial reign without Christ.

To the Communist this idea is not new; for over a century, he has been preaching that we could have a heaven on earth, and now, he sees a chance to put his plans in action.

With the close of this war it seems possible that the Communist Party shall be the most powerful political force in the world and shall have an important position in the post-war plans.

Communists have always hated Christianity, and all it has stood for. Because of this and their growing influence in high places, I am thoroughly convinced that it shall play a striking role in the coming forth of the anti-Christ.

The Bible surely pointed the accusing finger at Communism, when in I John 2:22 it says, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is anti-Christ, that denieth the father, and the Son."

In the course of this book I shall endeavor to tell you many of the things I learned of the Communist anti-Christian and un-American ways during my four years as a member of their party.

CHAPTER I.

I Was a Leader in the Communist Party

CHRISTIAN CHURCH UNDER ATTACK

We who profess to be followers of Christ are faced with the possibility of complete annihilation if we fail to stop our eternal bickering, and solidify our ranks to meet the common enemy.

The Christian Church today is under attack not alone by organized groups of men, but through a teaching, implanting ideas, which seeks to strangle our faith at its very roots by destroying the belief of a soul in man, and substituting in its place a materialistic conception of mankind.

These attacks are not new, yet they have never come in such great proportions and as largely supported as they are today. We are so often prone to laugh off the whole matter by telling the story of the anvil and the hammer. How for many years the hammers were destroyed by beating against the anvil, and yet the anvil stood. Likewise the Church has stood up under the beatings of Paine, Darwin, Darrow, Ingersoll, and others. In this we fail to see that we are not being beaten by a new hammer, but that a new blacksmith shop has opened around the corner, and hopes to stop our good works, by criticizing, and undermining our character, and the material which we use; planning if they fail in this, to destroy our shop by force.

COMINTERN LIKE OCTOPUS

In discussing this problem, I wish to deal with the most powerful proponent of this malicious philosophy, and the one I am most familiar with, having been a leader in their movement for nearly four years. This enemy is the Third International, better known as the Comintern or Communist Party International. This organization like a giant octopus spreads over all the world. At present their official headquarters are in Moscow, but can, if desired, be changed in a few hours. Unlike other organizations the General Secretary is its head. This procedure is carried out to the smallest units of the party.

The leaders of the Communist International are Joseph

Stalin, general secretary, and Georgi Dimitroff, president. The Communist International is a union of Communist parties in various countries; it is the World Communist Party. As the leader and organizer of the world revolutionary movement of the proletariat, and the protagonist of the principles and aims of Communism, the Communist International strives to win over the majority of the working class. It fights for the establishment of a world dictatorship of the proletariat. This world dictatorship would then continue to establish a world union of Socialist Soviet Republics for the achievement of Socialism, the first stage of a Communist society.

AMERICAN COMMUNIST PARTY UNIT OF INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY

The Communist Party is a section of the Communist International. Membership in the Communist Party and in the Communist International is open to all those who accept the program of the Communist Party and the Communist International. Those who join one of the basic units of the Party actively work in it, and abide by all the decisions of the Party and of the Communist International, and regularly pay Party dues.

The basic unit of the Communist Party organization is the nucleus in the place of employment, such as factory, workshop, mine, office, store, farm, etc., which unites all the Party members employed in the given enterprise. The Communist Party is not interested in a large membership, but in a well disciplined movement whose members will become leaders in the working class movements and will be missionaries of Marxism. The Party considers itself the vanguard of the working class, and each of its members an officer in the worker's army.

LEARNED COMMUNISM IN GOVERNMENT SCHOOL

I first learned of this in 1935, while attending a worker's school at Wisconsin University. This worker's school was sponsored by the Federal Government, but its teachers were Communist controlled. At that time I was a member of the Progressive Party and an ardent enemy of Communism.

One night one of the students invited a group of us to attend a closed Communist lecture which was held in the basement of the home of one of their members. The speaker was a young man from New York by the name of Cohen. His report was on the Seventh World Congress of the Party. He informed us that we liberals were like armies of soldiers without generals or plans to carry out our campaign. He said that our hit-and-miss policy would lead the working class to destruction, and that only by uniting under trained leadership with a different program could we achieve the goal we were fighting for; namely, a better world order, or, world Communism. He declared that the Communist Party was the only vanguard of the working class and its membership the Generals.

During the course of the meeting he made some remarks against the LaFollette brothers, which caused me to protest. This angered the speaker, and I was literally thrown out by two husky fellows. The following year the speaker and I became close friends, and we had many a hearty laugh over that experience.

On admission to the Communist Party one must sign a membership card, which pledges his allegiance to the Communist International, and for the revolutionary overthrow of our government, and the establishment in its place a United States of Soviet America. One then assumes an alias, (another name) so that if his membership book is ever found, it cannot be traced. If you are a member of any of its national committees, you receive a number. On entering the Party I chose the name John Keats, and later received the number 18-B-2, the latter to be used if the Communist Party went underground.

COMMUNISM AND RELIGION DON'T MIX

I was told that I wouldn't have to give up my religious beliefs, and all they asked in regard to that was that I read their material on religion. Later, I was told by a leading comrade, that if I didn't give up my religious beliefs I would have to die along with the ministers and priests after the revolution. He said dialectic materialism and religion don't mix, and anyone with religious tendencies would be a menace to a Communist State. He gave me a number of anti-religious books to read, in the hope I would soon renounce my Christian faith. I asked him about the thousands of "liberal" ministers, who have either defended or furthered the Communist cause. He said, "These liberal chameleons are of great value at present, but once our goal is reached, they will either have to change their belief or pay the price with their heads along with the rest."

We were given to understand that Communism was Twentieth Century Americanism, and that Earl Browder and Foster were the Washington and Lincoln of our day. Large posters were displayed at all mass meetings showing the American flag alongside the Soviet flag, and in the background it showed Browder, Foster, Lincoln and Washington. During the civil war in Spain in 1936, the two volunteer American battalions were named after Washington and Lincoln. It was a common thing to see in our meeting place a picture of Lenin and one of Washington, side by side, draped with the Red flag.

REVOLUTIONISTS FREQUENTLY DENY COMMUNIST PARTY

I was told that I could deny that I was a member of the Communist Party but never to make any statement damaging to the reputation of the Soviet Union, as it was the fatherland of all workers and should always be upheld. I was assigned to a special branch in the Party to which certain individuals belonged, who, of necessity, had to hide their affiliation with the Party, in some cases even from some of its own members. This was required because a slip of the tongue could handicap our work among other groups.

These Party branches are called units, or cells, and meet usually once a week to plan their work. One member is chosen as a go-between in reporting actions to the district organizer and in bringing back his instructions. Each member of the special branch usually reported directly to the district office for orders, as they were seldom allowed to meet together.

The general membership of the Communist Party is never disclosed to the public and only a few leaders in each state admit their membership in the Party. These men become the mouthpieces in disclosing its stand to the world. The rest remain under cover in order that no accurate check may be made as to its strength. This policy has led many to believe that the Party is weak. As an argument they refer to the small vote of the Communist Party in the general elections. The Party does not allow its power to be shown through votes cast for its presidential candidates. It only uses the election as a channel to carry

These stickers had to be torn off and sent to an address of a Party member in New York so that the Communist Leaders would know that the minutes had arrived safely.

Two Christians branded as traitors because they worshiped Christ in Godless Russia, are paying the price on the gallows. Millions of Christians have been horribly slain by the Communists in the Soviet Union in their effort to stamp out Christianity. To many a churchgoer, this seems so far away, but if we fail to stop the flood tide of Communism in America, you and I will be paying with our lives like these two children of Faith.

on a propaganda campaign to further the destruction of our democratic system, the very system which gives them the right to vote.

It can be truthfully said that there are more Communists in America today than there were in Russia before the revolution, and in Spain before their civil war. Since the so-called "dissolution" of the Comintern, their membership has increased by leaps and bounds.

COMMUNIST MEMBERSHIP INCREASES—MONEY ROLLS IN

During the early spring of 1943, Morris Childs, the Illinois State Secretary of the Communist Party, made this statement in the Chicago Armory in a recruiting drive rally: "In the two months of our recruiting drive 15,000 new members joined the party throughout the country, 1,500 of them from Chicago and its vicinities." Foster also stated in the same meeting: "Our Party is now stronger than ever. If anyone is not a member as yet, I hope you will join—we are going to march on to victory." The state chairman in concluding the meeting said: "We have been passing out the ammunition throughout the world. Our ammunition is propaganda. It must continue if Communists want to have the honor of winning the war." At the close of the meeting the hat was passed and the sum of $19,000 was collected. This large sum was collected in the name of Red Atheism, while many Christian churches throughout the land are having a hard struggle to raise enough to pay their ministers. This alone ought to make American Christians awake to the danger but ninety per cent of them draw back in their shell, and tell us that this is a Christian nation; that we are in the majority, and shall always remain so.

Only forty-nine per cent of our population has affiliation with any of the two hundred fifty religious denominations listed in the Year Book of American Churches. In other words, the church members in this country are now in the minority, although there has been an increase in the number of denominations.

There are 64,501,455 church members in the United States, with Catholics numbering 21,284,455, and Protestants 36,103,984. Methodists come first with 7,377,487. The Northern and Southern Baptists are next with a total of 4,949,174. Other church memberships include the Jewish, 4,641,184, and the Eastern Orthodox, 735,440.

PREACHERS USED BY COMMUNIST PARTY

We must remember that many of these church members are being led by ministers, who willingly or unwillingly have sold out to the materialistic ideals of the Communist theory. They no longer preach the gospel of Christ, but rather sermons of high-sounding words which, when analyzed in the light of Christian teaching, fail to give support to the Scriptures, and raise a question in the mind of the listener as to the existence of the Deity, and Virgin birth of Christ. It can readily be said of them, quoting the Scriptures, II Timothy 3:3, "Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof; from such turn away;" also in II Corinthians 11:13, 15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore, it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works;" also in II Timothy 4:3, 4, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

SCHOOLS FOR REVOLUTIONISTS EXIST IN AMERICA

To train their leaders, the Communist Party has established schools throughout America. These schools are located thickly through the industrial sections, the largest school being in New York state. Before 1935 the students were sent to Moscow to take their training course, which lasted from six months to two years. After 1935 the schools were established here with half of the expenses of maintaining them contributed by the Communist International, and the other by the local Communist Party. These schools were organized by the late Abraham Markoff, national head of the Communist school system in the United States. They are wells of ideological poison from which young citizens are drinking un-American, anti-Christian, and revolutionary ideas.

Earl Browder, National Secretary of the Communist Party in the United States, in his book, "Communism in the U. S." page 310, says: "The worker's school is that institution where we are providing our leaders with weapons, ideological weapons of Marxism, and Leninism, to be used in the mass struggle," Georgi Dimitroff, president of the World Comintern, said: "The masses must be stirred to struggle, and the Communist schools must be used to help them grasp the mighty, fertile, ALL POWERFUL BOLSHEVIK THEORY, the teachings of Marx, Engels, Lenin, and Stalin."

One of my first duties on entering the Communist Party, was to attend the Gene Debs Workers' School (then at 113 East Wells Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.) There I received my primary training in anti-Christian, anti-American ideas. Later I was assigned to attend the main school in New York. I refused this assignment, having just married, and knowing also that being there would mean I could not see or talk to my wife for six months. When sent to this school, not even the immediate family is to know the location of the school, and all letters are addressed to a place in New York City, and from there they are taken to the school. While in the school, one isn't allowed any contact with the outside world except through the Party leaders. All expenses and problems are taken care of by the Party, even that of sex. Both sexes attend the school. There are no moral restraints.

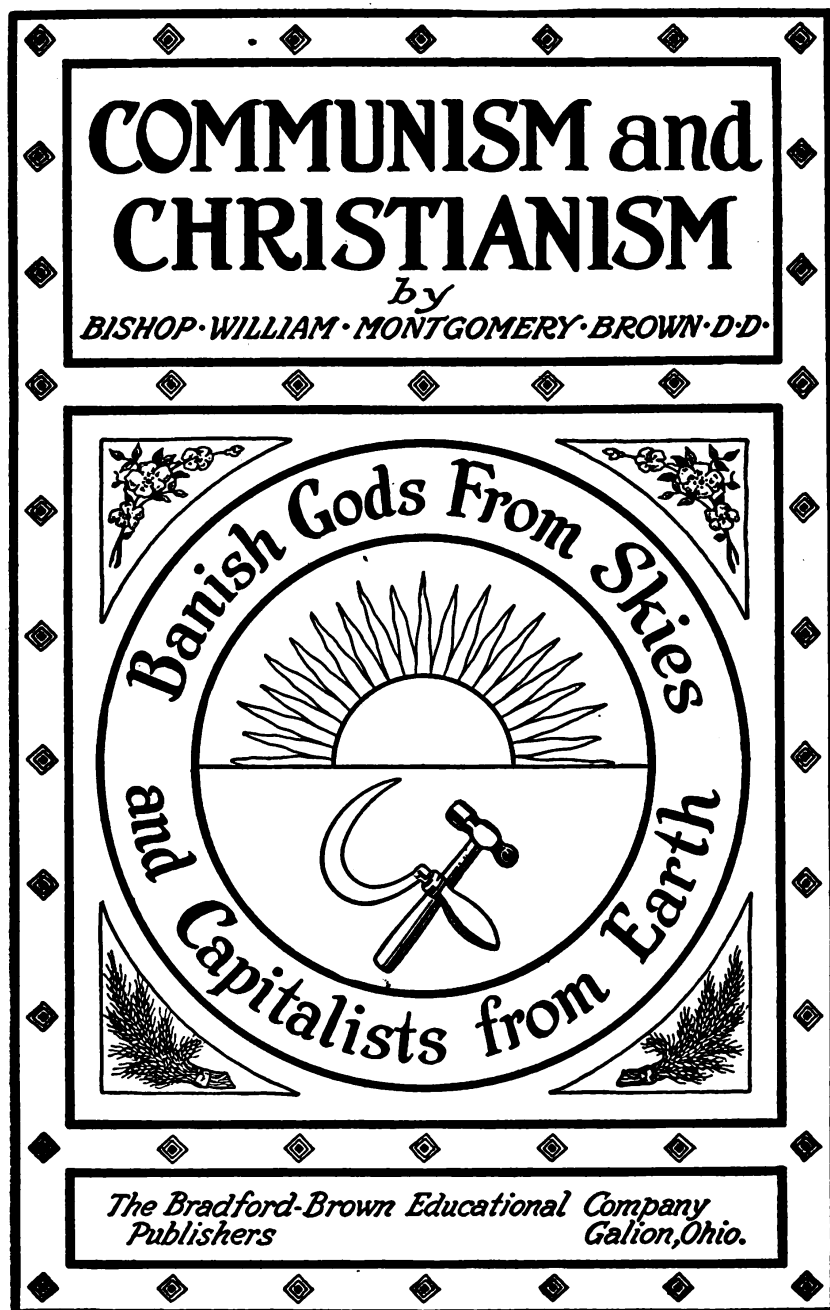

BORING FROM WITHIN

When a party member has received the proper training, he applies to whatever organization he is assigned in the hope of guiding its course to the left. A special course is given each year for those working in the church groups, and in the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. These students are leaders in their local, and state church groups. As an example of the cleverness of these God-hating atheists, I cite you an incident which occurred in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Two young girls were assigned by the Young Communist League to bore from within the Epworth League of one of this city's largest churches. They soon became quite popular, were elected to leading league offices, one of the girls having charge of worship.

On one Sunday evening the Epworth League held a discussion on "Christ's Alternative to Communism," by E. Stanley Jones. We were notified of the meeting, and ten of our comrades attended, and successfully led the discussion along Communist lines, until we had Christ, if he were here on earth today, leading strikes, and marching on Washington, D. C., to overthrow the established government. One red-haired fellow in the Church, who seemed a little more awake to what was transpiring, arose and asked the Pastor of the Church whether this was a meeting of the Epworth League or the Young Communist League. The pastor thought this was a very irregular question due to the fact that Communists don't believe in God; therefore don't attend church. He assured the young man that this was a good Christian discussion. To fully convince this young man, he asked any Communists in the room to please raise their hands. There were ten of us there, but not a hand was raised. The pastor smilingly turned and said, "Just as I told you, there are none here." This is just one example of what is taking place in thousands of churches throughout our land.

E. Yaroslavesky, president of the Militant Atheists of the Soviet Union, in his book, 'Religion in the U. S. S. R,' boasts of the fact that religion is on the decline in the United States, and that new anti-religious movements are springing up daily. He concludes his book with the statement, "REMEMBER THAT THE STRUGGLE AGAINST RELIGION IS A STRUGGLE FOR SOCIALISM." We find this statement simplified by the defrocked Episcopal clergyman, Bishop Brown, (now deceased) who wrote a pamphlet supporting the Communists, and titled it, "BANISH GOD FROM THE SKIES AND CAPITALISM FROM THE EARTH."

This book which was widely circulated by the Communist Party, was written by an Episcopal bishop who was defrocked by his Church for his Communist teachings.

THE PREACHER AND THE SLAVE

To the tune of "In the Sweet Bye and Bye"

1. Long-haired preachers come out every night,
Try to tell you what's wrong and what's right;
But when asked about something to eat,
They will answer with voices so sweet:

Refrain

You will eat by and by, in that glorious land above the sky.
Work, and pray, live on hay, you'll get pie in the sky when you die.

2. Oh the salvation army they pray.
They sing and they clap and they play.
When they get all your money on the drum,
They will tell you that you're just a bum.

Refrain

3. If you fight hard for children and wife,
Try to get something good in this life,
You're a sinner and bad man, they tell;
When you die you will sure go to hell.

Refrain

4. Workingmen of all countries, unite!
Side by side we for freedom will fight.
When the world and its wealth we have gained,
To the grafters we'll sing this refrain:

Last Refrain

You will eat by and by, when you've learned how to cook and to fry.
Chop some wood, 'twill do you good, and you'll eat in the sweet bye and bye.

This song is commonly sung in meetings of the Communist Party, as part of their plan to ridicule Christian teaching.

CHAPTER II.

Religion in the U. S. S. R.

INTERNATIONALE STILL SUNG

During the past year we have been told by many of our leading statesmen, and modernist clergy, that there is freedom of religion in Russia. By these statements we are lulled to sleep, believing there should be no fear of a growing menace of Communism at home, because we would be allowed freedom of worship.

Since the revolution in Russia 150,000 churches have been closed and 180,000 ministers killed in the Soviet Union. If this is the religious freedom they have, I want no part of it.

If the Communists believe in religious freedom, let them show signs of it by removing the second verse of their International anthem, called the "Internationale," which reads as follows:

We want no condescending savior
To rule us from a judgment hall;
We workers ask not for their favors,
Let us consult for all.
To make the thief disgorge his booty,
To free the spirit from the cell
We must ourselves decide our duty
We must decide and do it well.
'Tis the final conflict,
Let each stand in his place;
The International Soviet
Shall be the human race.

Editor's note: A Moscow broadcast on Jan. 28, 1944, said that the central committee of the Communist Party had voted to keep the "Internationale" as the "anthem of the all-union Communist Party of Bolsheviks." At the same time, the meeting approved the recent decision replacing the "Internationale" as the Soviet national anthem with the new one entitled, "An Inviolable Union of Free Republics."

Let them ban such songs, which called for the wholesale destruction of Christians as the one called "Blow the Bloody Bugles." It reads as follows:

Blow the bloody bugles,
Beat the bloody drums boys.
Blow the bloody Bourgeois
To bloody kingdom come.
Build the big bon-fire
As high as the big church spire;
And blow the bloody bastards
Higher one by one.

BLASPHEMY AGAINST FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

To further show their stand against religious freedom, let me quote you the Communist Party's Program of the U. S. S. R., quote: "The Communist Party of the Soviet Union is guided by the conviction that only the conscious, and deliberate planning of all the social and economic activities of the masses will cause religious prejudice to die out completely. The Party stands for the complete dissolution of the ties between the exploiting classes, and organized religious propaganda; and facilitates the real emancipation of the working masses from religious prejudices by organizing the widest possible scientific, educational, and anti-religious propaganda."

Since the revolution a generation of young people have grown up in the Soviet Union, without religious training. These young people have heard only blasphemy against the faith of their fathers. They have seen anti-religious parades, in which drunken workers clothe themselves in the robes of priests. In the parade placards were displayed bearing the slogans, 'Throw God in the dump,' and 'Religion is the opiate of the people.' They have seen churches over a hundred years old destroyed, which the government falsely claimed were a menace to public safety, and newer structures turned into workers clubs, and grain storehouses. They have enjoyed the practice of free love, and wholesale abortion, and have learned to ridicule the Christian ideal of marriage. These young people have heard their political leaders defy, and challenge the power of God.

One high Soviet official named Zinovieff showed his vehement anger towards God in a statement, in which he declared, "We shall grapple with the Lord God in due season. We shall vanquish Him in the highest Heaven, and wherever He seeks refuge, we shall subdue Him forever."

While in school the young Russian students are taken by their teacher to certain experimental garden plots. One plot, the teacher would designate to God, and the other to the students. Seeds would be scattered on the Lord's plot, and scientifically planted on the students' plot. No care would be taken of the Lord's plot but the plot of the students was cultivated, watered, and kept free of weeds. When the harvest came, the students' plot would bring forth an abundant crop, and the Lord's naught but weeds—so the teacher would tell the pupils, "See the helplessness of God. With God you can do nothing, without, you can do wonders."

Following the October revolution the atheists in the C. P. organized the militant godless society in Russia, which now has a membership of nearly six million people, and is increasing daily. This organization has a powerful influence over the policies of the C. P., and seeks to make Russia a one hundred per cent atheist nation, and later the world.

It carries on an educational program in the shops, schools and press. It encourages anti-religious demonstrations, such as the one in which Stalin, and his henchmen burned the effigy of Christ in Moscow. Many anti-religious posters are circulated by this organization, some of which I have in my possession. One of these shows a picture of Christ standing with His intestines hanging out, and people eating on them. The caption on the picture says, "The Holy Sacrament, and Christians feeding on the body, and blood of their Savior." Another as outrageous as this shows a big kettle in which whiskey is being brewed by Jesus and all around Him are His Apostles, God, and the Virgin Mary, carrying on in a drunken orgy. The caption of this is "The first bootlegger, the man who made the wine at Cana." Such pictures cause our hearts to go out in sadness to the young Russian children, who are being led innocently to blaspheme God.

SOVIET LEADERS DEFY GOD

E. Yaroslavsky, president of this Militant Atheist organization, said, "Our attitude toward religion, the Church, and the clergymen, is unchanged. We will continue our religious propaganda as we always have. There are still millions of believers in our country, and they will not disappear tomorrow. Religion is rapidly dying in the Soviet Union, and the number of clergymen is also declining. With the separation of the Church from the State, and school, priests retain their influence only over backward parts of the peasantry, and the former lower middle classes in the cities. Should some priest take it into his head to stand as a candidate for the Supreme Council of the Union of the Soviet Socialistic Republics, we would be entitled to oppose him, and spread widely the undesirability of such a candidate, on the basis of harmfulness of religion, and religious superstition."

All Christian ministers are considered counter-revolutionists, because they use the new testament as a textbook, and it admonishes us to love one another. To love one another would mean to love the capitalists too. This teaching has led to the arrest, and execution of many preachers. Their present day attitude on this question is shown in "The Antireligioznik," an official publication, published by the Soviet government, in which it states, "Religion is one of the most abominable and persistent remnants of capitalism in the consciousness of the people. Religion is opium to the people. Communism and religion are opposites, and are at enmity in the most important questions of the world outlook. Some sectarians and other abscurantists teach concerning the soon coming end of the world; these bigots spit at life as the vanity of vanities. Such an attitude has a deep contra-revolutionary meaning."

"There is nothing more abominable and hideous than this hypocritical and lying preaching concerning 'love and brotherhood.' The communist society, when it is finally established in all the world, will present a real brotherhood of man. The time will come when words such as enmity, hatred, murder, war, will disappear from the human language, and will be found only in the dictionary of dead words." End of quote.

Before some of our leading statesmen, and clergy make a Saint out of Bloody Joe, whose hands are still red with the blood of Christian Martyrs, let them read in the Soviet's own books, and press, the communist attitude toward religion. In the yearbook of the U. S. S. R., a Commissar makes this statement, "All religions, all Gods, are the same stupefying poison, deadening the will, the spirit, the conscience; implacable war must be waged upon them all."

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 21, 1937

My dear Mr. Hinckley:

It is with sincere pleasure that I send greetings to another annual "American Youth Congress", this year meeting in the form of a "Model Congress of the United States".

It is indeed gratifying to see in this Congress still another evidence of the growing interest which young people are showing in the affairs of government. It is encouraging and reassuring to know that the future of our democracy rests in the hands of a generation which is alive to the responsibilities which democratic government involves and well versed in its mechanics.

The problems and the opportunities which we face as a nation are numerous, varied, and challenging. This is no time for complacency or indifference; it is a time when vigorous and intelligent participation in the solution of our common problems is needed from every citizen in our democracy. The American Youth Congress has become an important instrument in achieving this end and, as such, has the good will and best wishes of all who are concerned with the future of American democracy.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. William W. Hinckley,
Chairman, American Youth Congress,
55 West Forty-second Street,
New York, N. Y.

This is a reproduction of the inside cover page of the 4th American Youth Congress position to the Youth Congress. ss convention manual. The President repeatedly lent his name and the prestige of youth to support the Communist controlled American Youth Congress. You notice to make one feel that the Communist Party is not so bad if the President of the ment which must take the consequences. Our country is the only one in the world in which the clergy is regarded as an army of parasites whose specialty is to propagate the poisons of religion. In our country this army has been put in its proper place—in the rank of the elements hostile to the revolution. The Soviet power is against all religion, and in its policy it follows the resolutions of the Party, which regards religion as a form of spiritual oppression.”

Christian don't be fooled as long as Russia remains under a communistic dictatorship. It will continue to carry on a campaign against religion, for religion and communism are incompatible, both theoretically and practically.

We can summarize the Soviet Union attitude on religion by the words of the outstanding communists, Karl Marx, and Lounatcharski. Marx declared: “We must make war against all prevailing ideas of religion. The idea is the Keystone of a perverted civilization. It must be destroyed. The true root of liberty or equality or culture is atheism.”

Lounatcharski in his writings cries out, “We hate Christians. Even the best of them must be regarded as our worst enemies. All religions are poison—a fight to the death must be declared upon all religions.”

This picture was first circulated by the I. W. W. in World War I. The last few years it has become the pride and joy of many a preacher in the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, who are supporting the social action program in the Protestant churches. This picture takes Christ out of His authority as Son of God and puts Him in the role of a reformer. It is such teachings as this that led me into the Communist Party.

CHAPTER III.

Booby Trap for Youth

YOUNGSTERS TRAINED TO HATE GOD

The-Communists are well aware of the fact that the early training of an individual plays an important part in his whole life. The seed once planted well in fertile ground is hard to destroy. Every Party member is required to bring up his children in the true bolshevic way. Very early the child is taught the clenched fist salute. He learns to hate God, policemen, and the capitalist. He feels free to cause disturbances at school, because he has the support of his parents. When there is a strike in town, they are allowed to watch the picket line, and when fighting starts, they are encouraged to throw stones, and shout scab, you d--- dirty scab, along with the rest. Children trained in this manner are valuable to the Party, because their hatred toward the ruling class is so great, that they would give their lives fighting it.

One day in the city of Milwaukee, I called upon a comrade, who had a large family. As I approached his home, I could see the children playing in the yard, and heard them shouting bang, bang. I was curious and asked them if they were playing cop and robber. One little fellow replied, "Hell no, we're the red army and are killing the big shots." One small boy, playing the role of a priest, was wearing a gunnysack for a robe and holding a cardboard cross. They had tied him to a clothes pole because he was aiding the big shots. It gave me a good laugh at the time but now when I look at it, I can see how these young minds were being made a breeding ground for hatred towards God.

At another comrade's home, their eight year old girl said to me, "my daddy says, you believe in God, and want to go to heaven when you die, well there is no God, and you will have to rot in the ground like all the rest of us."

How sad for a child to think that way; we who have tasted of the bountiful love of the Savior, can have naught but pity in our hearts for these children.

FREE LOVE PRACTICED BY YOUNG COMMUNISTS

When a young Communist reaches the age of 16, he joins a branch of the Young Communist League in the community in which he lives. There he meets many a young person who was brought up by parents who had no knowledge of the menace of Communism and who were unaware of the fact that their young son or daughter was attending league meetings. These branch meetings are held in dimly-lit halls, store buildings, and some times at the homes of Party members. The walls of the rooms are usually decorated with pictures of world revolutionary leaders and a Soviet flag. The meeting is always opened with the singing of the Internationale. Then the chairman (who is a member of the party, as all Y. C. L. officers must be members of the party) leads the discussions which reveal the activity of the league in furthering Communism amongst youth in the neighborhood.

After the meeting the members are allowed to indulge in free love. Both negro and white youth unite in these sexual orgies, and if a white girl comrade refuses the advances of a negro comrade, she is disciplined by the party for white chauvinism. Many times adult members of the party take advantages of these younger girls in the league.

Many girls soon learn that their bodies can be used in recruiting members to the party. A girl will strike up an acquaintance with a young man and after she has him under the influence of liquor, offers to barter her body in return for his membership in the party.

The Young Communist League is an arm of the party and holds membership in the International. Its duties are to aid the party in uniting the youth of the world in the revolutionary struggle against capitalism, and the establishment of a world Soviet order of Communist States. It also acts as a school for training future party leadership.

COMMUNISTS ORGANIZE YOUTH CONGRESS

Following the Russian Revolution until 1934, the Y. C. L. had employed underground tactics and had been unable to rally the broad masses of American youth under their leadership. In 1934 it organized the American Youth Congress, as a united front of American Youth. Through it, for six years, the league broadened its scope of revolutionary activity and led millions of American youth along the road to Communism. The use of the American Youth Congress as a revolutionary weapon was brought out before the 7th world Congress of the Communist Party by Comrade Kuusinen, a member of the secretariat, when he said:

"We want to attack our class enemies in the rear, when they start the war against the Soviet Union. But how can we do so if the majority of the tolling youth follow not us, but, for instance, the Catholic priests or the liberal chameleons?

"We often repeat the slogan of transforming the imperialist war into a civil war against the bourgeoisie. In itself, the slogan is a good one, but it becomes an empty and dangerous phrase if we do nothing serious in advance to create a united youth front.

"We need a revolutionary youth movement at least ten times as broad as our parties, and a united youth front hundreds of times broader still. That this is entirely possible in many countries is shown by the achievements of our French and American young comrades."

Then on pages 11 and 14 of his report he states:

" * * * Our American comrades achieved a great success at this Youth Congress. The agents of fascism were completely isolated, and the Congress was transformed into a great united-front congress of the radical youth. And when, somewhat later, a second general youth congress was held, our young comrades already enjoyed a position of authority in it. [This authoritative position was due to the confidence which they had gained by their new mass policy, also to the fact that they had learned to approach and conduct the work in the right way."

"In the American Youth Congress the youth movement has a big task to perform in developing the whole people's front movement. In the American Youth Congress we have the greatest tie between two main forces between which an alliance must be established in forming a people's front—the followers of Roosevelt in the middle class and the trade-union movement. By strengthening the American Youth Congress we will be able to, through the youth movement, help eradicate the weakness of the labor party movement in Detroit."

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S RINKY DINKS

Through the use of the American Youth Congress as a Trojan Horse the Young Communist League penetrated into the broad mass organization of our country and rallied to their cause over five million of our youth. The league was greatly aided in their endeavor by the wife of the President of the United States. The part of the wolf in Little Red Riding Hood was successfully played by Eleanor Roosevelt, in delivering the Youth of America, lock, stock and barrel, into the hands of the traitorous Communist Party. On several occasions she invited the leaders of the Youth Congress to tea at the White House. These leaders then use their influence with Eleanor to recruit new organizations to their Congress.

Following my testimony before the Dies Committee, in which I accused William Hinkley, Joe Cadden, Abbott Simons, and Joe Lash as being members of the Communist Party, she repudiated my statements and declared that they were fine young people. She further showed her loyalty to these rinky-dinks by appearing at a Dies Committee hearing with them. Eleanor Roosevelt's "know-nothing championship" of this organization has done more for the advancement of Communism in America, than could have been accomplished by thousands of active workers.

In 1940 at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, the sixth American Youth Congress refused to seat me as a delegate, because I had testified before the Dies Committee. Yet the largest billboard on the college camp ground was featuring a book in defense of the American Youth Congress, entitled "American Youth Today," which had a foreword written by Mrs. Roosevelt.

Eleanor Roosevelt continued to back the Youth Congress despite mounting charges by the Dies Committee, and other patriotic Americans, that it was a tool of the Communists. Since the war she has dropped her support of the Congress because of disagreement over certain platforms it had adopted. Yet until this day Eleanor has never denounced it, or told the American public of its Communist connections. When history is written, it can be truthfully said that the first lady, with her sympathetic heart and social worker enthusiasm, contributed much toward the establishment of Communism in America. She has become Standard equipment in setting up Browder's innocent clubs. Her name has been considered by the Communist Central Committee as its greatest asset in this new deal period.

With the entrance of America into the war, the American Youth Congress became an inactive organization. Realizing the need of a new youth front in America, the National Board of the Young Communist League met in New York on May 1, 1943, and decided that at a national convention in October it would disband and organize a new movement.

Over 5,000 young Communists, coming from various parts of the nation, packed two halls at Manhattan center, New York City, on the night of October 16th, despite a driving rain as the Young Communist League opened its historical National Convention to consider its own dissolution and the building of a new National Youth Organization, which would be another booby trap for Youth.

YOUNG COMMUNIST LEAGUE DISBANDS—ORGANIZES FALSE FRONT

The plot that was being hatched then would put the story of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde to open shame—for within 24 hours the notorious anti-Christian, un-American Young Communist League was supposedly stepping out of its bloody revolutionary garbs to appear in a new role, by wrapping itself snugly in the American flag and beating a patriotic taradiddle, and declaring to all the world that it was the Defender of American Youth, and the champion in the fight against juvenile delinquency.

The leaders there were pastmasters of this art. For six years they had pawned off on the American public, with the help of the President's wife, the American Youth Congress, which had led millions of our young men and women down the road to atheistic communism.

The closing rally was addressed by Earl Browder, National Secretary of the Communist Party—He told the delegates assembled that on the morrow they would launch one of the greatest crusades ever organized by the Communists to place the young people of America under their leadership and then made the statement that the Communist party would contribute $50,000 to establish this movement.

The following morning, October 17, this same crowd gathered at Mecca Temple to give birth to "American Youth for Democracy." Presiding over this meeting were the same youth leaders who before the invasion of the Soviet Union once cheered the White House picket line opposing American defense preparations and raised such slogans as "The Yanks Are Not Coming," "Keep America Out of War." Today they were all out for the defense of their fatherland, the U.S.S.R.

The key address was given by Dr. Harry Ward of Union Theological Seminary, a wolf in sheep's clothing, who uses his high calling in the Church to snare Christian youth into Communism. He declared "A large number of active religious youth can be brought into it because it proposes action that relates the need of today to the goals of tomorrow. Their religious action makes them anti-fascist in principal but their former pacifism only by logic of action"—and then this Judas Iscariot of the Church demands cooperation between non-Communists and Communists as a matter of historical necessity because it is essential to victory and survival.

Following his address, telegrams of greeting from the Young Communist Movement in China, Canada, and Cuba were read. Officers were then elected and 13 Astor Place, New York, was rented for their headquarters. These new officers were all members of the Young Communist League.

Thus was born the new Trojan Horse Organization. Undoubtedly this organization will continue to be the enemy of everything American just as its parent organization was. But at the present moment it suits the needs of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union that the name "Communist" be carefully camouflaged and hid by the skirt of democracy.

Will the gates of this new Trojan Horse be unlocked to unloose a flood of trained agitators to strike at America's vital spot, and will the American people learn to "beware of Greeks bringing gifts?"

Robert Thompson, its president, is a member of the National Committee of the Young Communist League and served in the International Brigade in the Spanish Civil War, and was responsible along with his comrades of burning bodies of priests and nuns in the city of Barcelona. John Gallo is a vice chairman of the new titled Communist movement now using the name "American Youth for Democracy." It's the old story of Judas who placed a kiss on the hand of Christ to betray him to the mob. John Gallo once praised by the Communist publication "Daily Worker" as an outstanding youth worker. He is also on the Executive Board of Ford Local 600 U. A. W. and a member of the National Board of the Young Communist's League, also a member of the Union Fraction of the Communist Party.

The Secretary-Treasurer, William Robert McCarthy, is President of Local 37 of the Marine and Ship-building workers and a member of the Massachusetts Board of the Communist Party.

Next, but not least, Carl Ross, the Executive Secretary, who will handle the greatest part of the American Youth for Democracy's activity, is the former head of the Young Communist League of America, a representative of the League at the Communist International, and former Minnesota State Organizer for the Young Communist League.

Bridget Paulson, an unnaturalized alien and former member of the Young Communist League outlined a program for the young Americans.

What a fine bunch of moral perverts, scandal-mongers, and morons for the parents of American youth to accept as custodians of their children.

CHAPTER IV.

Facts to Face

THE DOUBLE CROSSING DEAN

Any real person will respect a man who has the courage of his conviction, but can only have contempt in his heart for a man like Rev. Hewlett Johnson, the Dean of Canterbury, who uses his high calling to betray the children of Faith. It's high time for this wishy-washy, traitorous clergyman to either start preaching the true Gospel or get out of the pulpit. If he wishes to preach Communism, he ought to get himself a soap box or rent a hall, where he can sing praises to these Bible-burning, Christ-assassins. But he shouldn't be allowed to sneak into a pulpit in the Canterbury Cathedral in England, built by the faith and prayers of honest believers to say and do things that break down the faith of men and women in the lordship of Christ and in the inspiration of the Holy Bible.

The Dean of Canterbury like all other Communists, denies his connection with the party. Yet by the company he keeps and his writings, anyone who will listen to reason can be thoroughly convinced that this man has contributed more for the advancement of atheistic Communism in the last decade than any other living person.

In 1940 Rev. Hewlett Johnson wrote his first book in defense of Russian Communism, called "The Soviet Power" or commonly called the "Socialist Sixth of the World." Millions of copies of this book have been sold and given away in all parts of the globe. Copies can be found in every village, hamlet, town or city in America. It was first sold at fifty cents—then reduced to a pamphlet form, which sells for five and ten cents. In my travelings here in America, I have visited hundreds of clergymen who have been converted to the Communist theory of government through this book.

Had the Dean of Canterbury ended his praise of Communism by this book, one would have been less suspicious, but hardly a Communist publication comes to my desk that doesn't contain some article written by him. Some of the latest are "The Moral Foundation of the U. S. S. R."

found on page 16 of the November issue of the magazine called "Soviet Russia Today." Then in a pamphlet, "My Russian Travel Diary," written by Major A. S. Hooper, he writes an introduction which gives full support to the Communist theory and concludes it in his deceiving way by using the words of Christ in saying, "This is a criterion handed to us by Him who said of persons, and it applies equally to nations." "By their fruits ye shall know them."

In 1943 he published a new book called the "Secret of Soviet Strength," which is selling like hot cakes. At the first meeting in December of the newly organized Communist controlled press and Literature Council of Philadelphia, 2,500 copies were sold. The Communist Party is doing everything in its power to circulate this new book; at present it is running an ad in the "Daily Worker" offering the book as a premium with a year's subscription to "The Worker." In an article in the December 12, 1943, "Worker," William Z. Foster, National Chairman of the Communist Party, reviews this book and makes the following comment: "TO PUT THE 'SECRET OF SOVIET STRENGTH' INTO THE HANDS OF AS MANY PEOPLES AS POSSIBLE IS NOTHING SHORT OF A MAJOR WAR TASK." Following the completion of the book, the Dean received a cablegram from Joseph Stalin praising him on the fine work he was doing.

The Dean, in this new Alice in Wonderland book, exposed his great love for the atheistic Communist Party when he said on page 159: "Without such a party Russia could never have borne the shock and maintained its cohesion of will and purpose throughout the terrible five and a half months of defeat and retreat which followed Hitler's initial attack. It was the iron core of unity and determination that made possible what is probably the greatest feat in military history and turned an ordered retreat of eight hundred miles without pause or hesitation, into the long and effective counter-offensive. . . . It was Russia's will, manifested through the Communist Party, which saved Russia and the world in 1941 and 1942."

It surprises me to see so many Christians fooled by this wolf in sheep's clothing, but more surprising that the great "Church of England" keeps him as a leader.

No mortal man shall ever know the damage done to Christianity by this double crossing Dean, but I'm prone to believe that he contributed a great deal to the stand taken by Rev. White this last fall. For on August 29, 1943, Dr. Eliot White, formerly associated with New York's historical Grace Church, and now on the retired list of New York's Episcopal Diocese, and his wife, Mabel R. White, joined the Communist Party, and stated it was the only party living up to the Holy Bible. Since his induction into the party, he has taken a position on the "Worker" editorial staff, and is editing a column called "Toward the New Day" in this Communist Sunday publication.

BOOK TAB—STALIN AND GOD

During the course of the war, many new magazines have been published, whose sole aim was to promote communism under the guise of our friendship with the Soviet Union. Whether Book Tab is one of these only time will tell. Yet, whether it is or not, Book Tab, in its Summer, 1943 edition, did more to create the idea that Stalin was ordained of God than any magazine published in or out of the Communist Party since Stalin's rise to power. The front cover of which a reproduction appears in this book, has on it the head of Stalin, with a cross in back of him and a light shining out of heaven upon him, and is titled "Stalin and God." The first chapter is named "Unto Her a Son was born" a rank takeoff from the Bible story of the birth of Christ.

The story in this magazine goes on to say that Stalin's mother had no sons and that she promised if God would send her one, she would dedicate his life to God. The writer claims that Stalin was born on December 21, 1879 (near Christmas) and that the fingers of his left hand were drawn together forming the Eastern Orthodox Sign of the Holy Trinity. All through the story of Stalin's life, it tries to prove that he was doing what God would have him do, and climaxing it in the words of Stalin when he resolved "Here in Russia, one will safeguard religion. Here in Russia, one will always be free to worship God, or to search for God. One's right to attack theology will also be protected here in Russia, as it is in the American Nation."

Christians, this is another shadow of things to come. Through such stories, the world is being prepared for the appearance of the Antichrist.

A WORKER LOOKS AT JESUS

One of the greatest attacks on Christianity appears in a pamphlet called "A Worker Looks at Jesus" by David Grant and published by the "Christian Front for Peace and Against Fascism," whose headquarters is in the second largest stronghold of Communism in America, Hollywood, California. The complete pamphlet attempts to ridicule soul salvation and place the church on a revolutionary basis. To prove it's outrageous blasphemy against the Church and the Holy Bible. I shall quote at random several passages.

Religious emotionalism is one of the most popular methods of escape from the realities of life. It ranks higher than alcohol or dope. The old time religious revival is the medium that has mentally unbalanced countless people. In its most developed stage the sufferers believe themselves to be historic religious characters and are confined in insane asylums.

Page 5

The Bible is the history of a race of people evolved from savagery to the point where it produced a Jesus.

Everyone is ready to discuss the Bible. Many believe it, but few have read it through. The God of the Old Testament, as represented by the text, aided, abetted, advised and often commanded murder, arson, pillage, robbery, rape, etc. It has often been said, "If there existed such a monster as the God pictured in the Old Testament, it would be man's first and foremost duty to destroy Him."

Early in the Bible, we read about God parading "all the beasts of the field and the birds of the air" before Adam, to have him pick himself a wife—but he found nothing to suit. So God put Adam to sleep and from one of his ribs made woman. How lucky for the future of the race that Adam had a mind of his own.

The "Gentle Lamb of God" idea of Jesus is a figment of the imagination and not in accord with the records in the Bible.

Page 14

"Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among the thieves?" Levite and priest were the religionists; the Samaritan, the un-believer.

Jesus was the Good Shepherd that protected the sheep amongst the Roman wolves. Paul sought to turn the people into sheep and put them at the mercy of the wolves.

Then on page 25 the writer shows that his first love is for Communist Russia, when they state that Christ said,

“The Co-operators shall inherit the world,” and “In this man’s world, the Co-operators rule more than one sixth of this earth, and their power is still in the ascendant.”

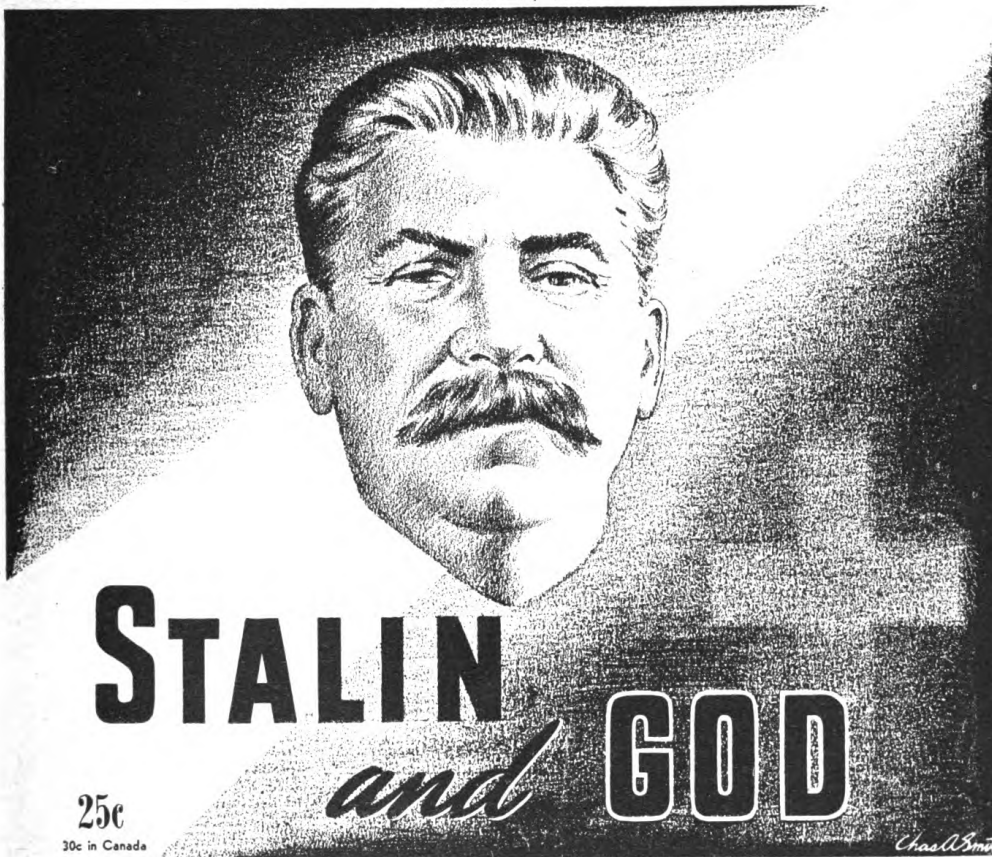

The writer then climaxes his thoughts in presenting to the reader, the man he worships as God, when he states on page 35 “The economic interpretation has been found to furnish the key to this better understanding, ANOTHER JEW, KARL MARX, WHO WILL IN TIME RANK WITH JESUS, AS A SAVIOUR OF THE WORLD WORKED OUT THIS METHOD OF CRITICAL INTERPRETATION.”

CHAPTER V.

Toward a Postwar Soviet World

BROWDER'S ABOUT FACE

On the night of Jan. 10, 1944, about 20,000 people packed Madison Square Garden in New York, to hear Earl Browder explain the new change in the Party line. But few of those present saw the invisible string, which was being pulled by Stalin in the Kremlin, as puppet Browder gave his new song and dance. This act was one, which many Communist leaders had been performing in all parts of the world since the Tehran Conference.

There is nothing either remarkable or reprehensible about people changing their minds. But when millions of people in all parts of the world change their minds on the same subject simultaneously, there is cause for suspicion.

Therefore it behooves us to examine carefully the statements being made by this Communist Spokesman. For after a man has lied to you on many occasions, you have a right to question his goodness.

According to the Capitalist press, Browder declared, "that the Party was dropping their traditional objective of establishing socialism and would cooperate with Capital's free enterprise." Yet about ten days later in the Communist Daily Worker, Browder says, "I have not the slightest doubt of the establishment of socialism eventually." Surely these two statements made by Browder, make plain a treacherous plot of supposedly cooperating with the free enterprise system, yet while so doing, they work to destroy it and bring about a Socialist State.

Truly as long as the word Communist remains in their name, it shows their final goal is communism.

He told the Madison Square Garden Crowd, that the Party intended to change its name to the 'Communist Political Association'; and to abandon the practice of entering Party candidates in elections. He announced that the Communists are neither joining nor indorsing either political party. Such empty babble on his part should be taken with a 'grain of salt,' for already he has advocated a fourth term for President Roosevelt. Taking the Party off the ballot has delivered the New Deal candidates approximately one million additional votes.

As a separate Party on the ballot the Communists never intended to get anywhere in this country, and with the present bureaucratic setup, so ideal for their 'boring from within strategy,' there isn't any question, who the Communist will support in the 1944 campaign.

To one who has studied Communist strategy from the inside as a member of the Party, these strange developments mean only one thing, the Party is going underground in careful preparation for the revolution. Many a person will think this statement foolish; yet every Communist worker looks forward to that day as hopefully as we Christians to the coming of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Every Communist member thinks of the revolution in terms of what part he will play, and the high position he shall obtain under a Communist government.

For years the Party has been building themselves into power, and preparing for the showdown. Plans have been made, so that when the final hour arrives, they will be able to paralyze the majority of vital plants in America. All important Party members have been instructed how to systematically seize control of gas, water, transportation, and electricity, and thereby place the cities under their control.

For years they have given America a pre-view of the coming revolution in the general strikes they have led in many of our major cities.

Today in America, we find the Communist growing more powerful by the hour. Already we have over 2000 of them holding office in the bureaucratic setup in our nation's Capital. Thousands of them are holding important positions in our vital industries, yet many of our national leaders close their eyes to this dangerous menace, and let the rats continue to gnaw away at the pillars of our free American Republic.

One of their latest revolutionary schemes is to confuse the American people into believing that many good American citizens are fascists; by lumping them together with members of the Nazi Volkbund. These purge trials, and the book, "Under Cover," are nothing more nor less than an attempt by the Communist Party, and their colleagues, to destroy the influence, and to smear the character of many leading Americans, who are fighting Communism.

How several of our good Christian Americans can be tried for treason because of their fight against Communism, while the "Raw Deal" leaders free a traitor like Earl Browder, and allow a slacker like Arthur Derounian, Alias John Carlson, to spread his poisonous venom is more than most Americans can understand.

Today a question most frequently asked is, "What does Stalin want in the post-war settlement?" To answer that I would probably be forced to say, "Your guess is as good as mine;" yet in the light of prophecy, and what I have learned while a member of the Party, I would answer in this manner:

1. The Soviet Union is fighting this war for the defense of her own land and no other. Had Hitler failed to invade her, she would have still been playing the waiting game, until she saw a chance to gain territory.

2. Stalin will add to the Soviet Union, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, parts of Poland, parts of Finland, and Bessarabia at the close of this war.

3. Through the use of the Eighth-route Army in China (Communist controlled Army) Stalin shall conquer, and establish a Communist regime over certain sections of China near the Russian border.

4. The Free German Committee, created by the Communist Party shall attempt to seize control of the defeated German government.

One need not create these conclusions out of the fragments of his imagination, all he has to do is read the Pravda dispatches, and remember, that every line published in it, is an official expression of the Russian government. Through it Stalin is telling the world what he intends to do.

At the close of this war without adoubt Stalin, and his Party, shall be the most important power in Europe, and Asia.

During the war, the Communist Party in most of these countries has kept itself alive through underground activity, and is preparing for the day when it shall make its appearance as the only firmly established Party in the world.

It looks now as if our slogan of 'Four Freedoms,' has become an empty phrase, for many of the nations we fought to free, will be turned over to slavery under the cruel heels of the God-hating, Christian-killing, Soviet Power.

It seems apparent, that Great Britain, and the United States are finding themselves at this moment powerless to act, because they are tied by the enemy within their gates. If they fail to yield to Stalin's demands, he can call upon his satellites in our nation, and Great Britain to revolt, and cripple the war industries, which would delay our victory over the Axis Powers, and cost us the lives of many thousands of our boys.

Every Christian should read II Chronicles 7:14, which says:

"If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Then pray to God to give us a speedy victory over the Axis, and open the eyes of our leaders to the danger of Communism within our land.

THE AUTHOR

Kenneth Goff was a member of the Communist Party for approximately four years. He was especially active in the Young Communist League as a speaker and an organizer. He was in charge of organizing the fourth American Youth Congress in 1937, which was the largest and most successful ever held by that organization. After he saw the light in 1939, he attended a meeting of the American Youth Congress in Lake Geneva, Wis., in company with Gene Tunney, and challenged their activities and program. He engaged in considerable ripping repartee with Mrs. Roosevelt regarding the aid and assistance she was extending to members of the Young Communist League. He received nationwide publicity for calling attention of the public to Mrs. Roosevelt's pro-Communist activities. He has toured the country with big-shot Communists, including Earl Browder, in the interest of spreading the poisonous virus of Communism.

Since quitting the Communist Party (his conversion is complete) he has received a multitude of threats against his life from members of the Communist Party. He has the most complete collection of bona fide Communist documents in existence outside of the Communist Party.

His wife was also a member and worker in the Communist Party. He joined the Communist Party in an effort to sell a program of Social Justice. He was a naive, gullible young student in theology when this happened. He left the Communist Party when their high command ordered him to proceed to a finishing school, and, at the same time, ordered his wife to continue her work here. Demanding an explanation for this separation, the high command assured him that the bonds of matrimony meant nothing to the Communist Party.

Mr. Goff resigned from the Communist Party, and Young Communist League in a formal statement, as he willingly appeared before the Dies Committee in Washington, D. C.

In 1941, Mr. Goff testified at a hearing of the Little Dies Committee in the Wisconsin Legislature, revealing the Communist control of the Allis Chalmer 76 day strike. Stanley High covered this testimony in an article called, 'Rehearsal for the Revolution' in the June, 1941, edition of the Readers Digest.
